DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 3-5, 7, 9-17, 19-21, 23, 25-33, 35-37, 39, 41-56 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: As noted in the amendment (especially at pages 11-14), the claimed inventions are meant to be within the situation noted at page 12. The "core services" and "method calls" are specifically defined in these pages. For example, the core services include the auditing service, the international service, and the security service. They are provided in response to method calls – hence providing additional capability rather than mere compatibility. The prior art did not teach or suggest the particular features of the claims.

Conclusion
